JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 30 October 1970

1. (Unclassified - JMM) Mr. David Abshire and Mr. Harry Symmes, Assistant Secretary and Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations, respectively, visited Headquarters for a luncheon discussion hosted by the Executive Director and covering a wide range of our mutual problems in dealing with the Hill.
2. (Unclassified - GLC) Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of the Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, called and asked if our people knew the true name of John Connell, the author of "The Office: A Study of British Foreign Policy and Its Makers, 1919-1951." With Mr. Pforzheimer's assistance, I advised Miss Fosdick Connell's true name was John Henry Robertson. He died on 5 October 1965.
3. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Jack Norpel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called and asked if we could supply him with several unclassified maps of Cuba, Santiago and Havana, for the use of a member of the Venceremos Brigada who is supplying the Subcommittee with information.
4. (Confidential - GLC) The material which [REDACTED] translated for Senator Jackson's use at the [REDACTED] meeting was sent by courier to Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of the Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations.

1. (Secret - GLC) Messrs. John Maury and [REDACTED] met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and discussed the possibility of the Director's visiting Senator Russell in Georgia and our budget session which has been tentatively scheduled for 19 November 1970. See Memorandum for the Record.

2. (Confidential - GLC) Met with Mr. Philip W. Morgan, Minority Counsel, Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, and discussed with him Senator McClellan's letter of 16 October 1970 to the Director. See Memorandum for the Record.

3. (Confidential - GLC) Al Tarabochia, on the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called and asked for any background information which we might have on two Cubans, [REDACTED]

4. (Unclassified - GLC) Picked up from Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, a copy of material which Senator Jackson has asked us to translate. This was passed on to [REDACTED] STATSPEC

5. (Confidential - JMM) Called Dave Abshire, Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations, to ask about the status of Senator Case's inquiry to the Department about Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. Abshire said that, pursuant to our discussion last week, he had tried to get in touch with Case by phone but the Senator was on the campaign trail and has not been accessible. However Abshire has left word with the Senator's secretary and expects the Senator to call him shortly. He will advise us of the results.

5. ^{25X1A} (Confidential - GLC) Talked with Mr. [REDACTED], Office of Security, and Mr. [REDACTED] WH Division, about Mr. [REDACTED] proposal for research of congressional initiative in Latin American affairs. I told them that we could give Osborne sufficient guidance for any contacts which he might want to make on the Hill, but defer to WH Division's judgment as to whether this was a proper topic for [REDACTED] to pursue in his studies in American University.

6. (Secret - JGO) Talked to Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who told me that during his absence OMB had delivered the Agency budget letter to John Garrity of the staff. Since House action is completed on the bill, however, the amount set forth therein will have 25X1C no effect on the action already taken by the House.

8. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Based on the advice of [REDACTED] I informed Miss Dorothea Dickinson, in the office of Representative Louis Wyman (R., N.H.), that we would prefer not to meet with [REDACTED] (see Journal of 9 October 1970) unless the Congressman either had more current information relating to the [REDACTED] credibility or had made a commitment to the [REDACTED] which would be difficult to retract. She deferred to the Congressman who called me from New Hampshire, and while he was most understanding, he said he had already committed himself and I told him that as an accommodation to him we would meet with the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] has been advised.
